

It is my very strong opinion that it would be a huge mistake for the FCC to allow Low Power FM to take priority over FM translators. My entire family listens to K-Love radio locally on 96.9, 102.3, or 104.3, which all broadcast K-Love as FM translators. K-Love offers great family-friendly radio and is a tremendous asset to our entire community.